United, it's a far stronger message

The Evans Head Business & Community Chamber Inc are a proud partner with the NSW Business Chamber .

This vital relationship contributes to the strength of the united Chamber movement and ensures the interest of small, medium, and large businesses are represented at Local, State, and Federal levels of Government.

United in our efforts and voice, we have a far greater chance to impact decision makers on bigger issues such as tax reform, industrial relations and red tape burdens.

The Chamber is a powerful ally that provides representation and advocacy on behalf of members.

The Chamber actively lobbies to support the interest of the local community.

United, we can influence decisions and protect the rights of business in Evans Head.
